

BLOOD CANCERS

Fast Facts

Blood cancers are cancers that affect your bone marrow and blood cells.

2400

New cases of blood
cancers are diagnosed
per year

Blood cancers
account for almost 10%
of all new
cancer cases
diagnosed
each year

Death rates
for blood cancers have declined significantly
since 2000

Blood cancers
are responsible for over 8%
of cancer
deaths each year

5-year survival has increased from

53% (1994-2007)

to

67% (2008-2021)

The most common blood cancers are non-Hodgkin Lymphoma
Multiple Myeloma
Leukaemia

Contact us

-  353 (0)21 431 8014
-  Info@ncri.ie
-  www.nci.ie
-  Cork Airport Business Park, T12 CDF7

Learn More

